

New Web Site

The guys at Experience Outdoors are not only excellent fishermen but they are also pretty handy at creating web sites. They have put this new site together for me and I am slowly finding my way around and adding content. I had the pleasure of fishing with Tom and Greg last fall on their boat out of Ludington. They are great host and put a limit of nice Kings in the boat in short order.