

September 3, 2007 Report

I took the holiday weekend off to spent time with my family. According to all reports, fishing was excellent and looks to continue that way. Limit catches were common over Labor Day weekend. I still have a couple weekend openings in September if you are interested in getting out on the lake this summer.